

The University Libraries invite you to provide a memorial tribute, celebrate a special occasion, honor a friend or family member, or acknowledge an accomplishment by participating in Honor with Books.

Giving to the University Libraries in honor of friends or relatives has become a tradition in the Las Vegas community. Contributions of any amount enrich the Libraries collections and are greatly appreciated. Notification of your thoughtfulness will be sent to those you designate.

Each tax deductible contribution of $100 or more supports the University Libraries in a special way. A bookplate bearing the name of the person you are honoring or remembering will be placed in a book for each $100 gift. You can choose the subject area in which the book(s) will be plated from the attached list.

As an acknowledgment of your generosity, a facsimile bookplate will be sent to you. We also will notify the person you are honoring, or the family of the person you are memorializing.

Your participation in Honor with Books will provide an enduring resource for the University Libraries. For years to come, your generosity will be a symbol to students and faculty of cherished memories and scholarly discoveries.

We hope you'll consider Honor with Books a fitting way to pay lasting tribute as you help strengthen the Libraries now and for the future.
