Laptop Checkout Policy

Eligible Borrower

University of Nevada Las Vegas faculty, staff, and students. YOU MUST HAVE YOUR UNLV I.D. If you have any fines or overdue items on your library record, you will not be able to borrow a laptop until the fines or overdue items are cleared.

Conditions for use

Laptops are for Lied Library use only.

The circulation period is 4 hours or less depending on the time the laptop is checked out.

A laptop loan agreement form must be signed by the user.

User files must be saved to a disk or USB flash drive before returning laptop to Media Resources. The hard drive will be wiped clean of any files when returned to Media Resources. The Library is not responsible for any lost files.

Laptop must be returned to the Media Resources service counter.

In case of emergency evacuation of library please leave the laptop in the Library.

Overdue and loss or damage charges

Laptop overdue fines are $20 per hour or any portion thereof. The maximum overdue fine is $100.

The user who checks out the laptop is responsible for any loss or damage until the laptop is returned to the Media Resources service counter. The user is responsible for up to the full replacement cost ($1500) if the computer is damaged or stolen.

Battery Information

We recommend that you plug the laptop into an outlet to protect your work, but battery power is an option. If you choose to use the battery, pay attention to the power level. If the level is low plug the laptop in or trade the low battery for a fresh one at the Media Resources Desk

Check the battery power level:

In the systems tray at the bottom right of the screen, find the battery icon.

Battery
Icon

To check both the amount of time and percentage of battery power left hover over the icon with the cursor. The information will pop up. Or double click on the icon and a window with the information will open.

How to print

ALWAYS USE PRINT PREVIEW!

Choose the print option from an icon, drop down menu etc...

When the print window opens choose BW printer or Color printer.

Name your Job (for color you will name it twice).

Go to the nearest print station and follow the posted instructions.

Printing assistance is provided by the Library Computer Help Desk on the first floor of Lied Library, under the "Research and Information" sign.
