UNLV Faculty Institute on Research-Based Learning in High-Impact Classes
Application Part II

Print, sign and submit via campus mail by October 23, 2009
Vicki Nozero
Director of Research & Education
University Libraries
Lied Library M/S 7014

As a Fellow of the Institute on Research-Based Learning in High-Impact Classes, I confirm that I will:
• attend and participate in the entire three-day Institute from January 4-6, 2010
• attend and participate in three additional Friday morning sessions during Spring 2010
• complete and submit a revised syllabus and research assignment(s) for my course based on the work of the Institute and my refinements throughout the year in collaboration with the Institute Partners
• teach or coordinate the course that is redesigned as a result of this Institute in Fall 2010
• participate in evaluation of both the Institute and my subsequent classroom experiences
• regularly attend events organized for the Fellows throughout the year
• share my experiences with colleagues through web-based and public forums

Applicant’s Name
________________________________________

Applicant’s Signature Date
________________________________________

As the Chair in the sponsoring department, I support this applicant’s candidacy and confirm that this course, ____________, will be offered in ____ Fall 2010.

Department Chair’s Name
________________________________________

Department Chair’s Signature Date
________________________________________