
PENNSYLVANIA: ANNUAL CASINO DATA

FISCAL YEAR SLOT AND TABLE METRICS BY LOCATION

CENTER FOR GAMING RESEARCH, OCTOBER 2012

Executive Summary

Since its debut in 2006, Pennsylvania's casino industry has been one of the fastest-growing in the United States. This report collects data charting the industry's revenues, machine counts, promotional play totals, and table counts, with win per unit averages for slots and banked table games, and includes tables detailing total revenues, revenue by region, and annuals totals in several categories.

Notes and Definitions.

Wagers: Total amount bet by patrons

Payouts: Total amount returned to patrons as winnings

Promotional Plays: "Free play" and promotional credits granted by a casino; not included as revenue

GTR: Gross Terminal Revenue; the amount the casino retained as win

Promo %: Percentage of promo plays to total GTR

Rev/Slot/Day: Average revenue per slot machine per day

W/T/D: Average win per table per day

Bank: Tables that are bank games pitting the house against the player, i.e., blackjack, craps, roulette, baccarat, etc.

Non-Bank: Tables where players bet against each other and the house collects a rake/commission, such as poker

All totals in US dollars

All time periods are fiscal years (July 1-June 30)
