Title: Grad Workshop: Engaging Best Practices to Successfully Publish a Journal Article

Date: Thursday, May 31, 2012

Time: 10:00 to 11:30 am

Location: Amargosa Room, Collaborative Learning Center, Lied Library

Instructor: Marianne Buehler, Assistant Professor, University Libraries

Description: Attendees will learn:

- Where to find publishing opportunities
- The details and components of making an article stand out
- Academic writing styles
- Copyright guidelines using others’ intellectual property
- The article submission and peer-review editorial process
- Tools to retain your copyright
- The importance of open access to research.

The workshop is intended for graduate students.

To Register: Follow the instructions on the CFPO registration page https://cedwebserver.unlv.edu/wconnect/cfpo/home.htm

For More Information Contact: Stephen Fitt
Lied Libraries
895-2192
stephen.fitt@unlv.edu

Event Sponsor: Sponsored by the University Libraries and the Graduate College in coordination with the Consortium for Professional Development Opportunities