Building World-Class Collections

Special Collections & Archives

The UNLV Libraries Special Collections and Archives supports researchers world-wide in the interdisciplinary study of Las Vegas, Southern Nevada, and gaming. It is dedicated to building world-class collections, fostering discovery and access, safeguarding collections for future generations, creating new knowledge, and promoting scholarship and lifelong learning.

Center for Gaming Research

The Center for Gaming Research supports scholarly inquiry into all aspects of gambling and provides expert information to the gaming industry. With world renowned collections from rare books and broadsides to casino corporate archives, the Center attracts interdisciplinary scholars around the world to study gambling and gaming at UNLV, and it promotes their pathbreaking scholarship.

Oral History Research Center

The Oral History Research Center actively seeks the unwritten side of Las Vegas's history. It collects oral narratives from a variety of residents, ranging from civic leaders and founders to those who worked behind the scenes in Las Vegas's gaming and entertainment industries. Recent projects include the Documenting the African American Experience in Las Vegas project and the Southern Nevada Jewish Heritage project.
