Biographical Note

Eileen Brookman (1921-2004) dedicated her adult life to public service, as a member of the Nevada State Assembly and in volunteer and civic activities. She was born Eileen Milstein in Denver, Colorado on October 25, 1921. She grew up in Southern California and graduated from Eagle Rock High School in 1940. She married George Brookman on July 11, 1941 and the couple had two children, Michael and Deborah.

The family moved to Las Vegas, Nevada in 1953. George Brookman operated a construction company. The family became involved in the Las Vegas Jewish community and Eileen Brookman held leadership positions in B'nai Brith. She ran for the Nevada Assembly in 1966 for the first time, won the election, and went on to serve a total of eight terms in the legislature. She temporarily left public office in 1978, but returned and succesfully ran for reelection in 1986. She retired in 1990 in order to care for her son Michael, a heart transplant recipient.

She belonged to many organizations including the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the National Conference for Christians and Jews. In her political career, Brookman advocated for senior citizens and the underprivileged and also served on the White House Conference on Aging. She was also a member of the Nevada Taxicab Authority, the Nevada Indian Affairs Board, and the Las Vegas Ethics Review Board. The Clark County School District named a Las Vegas elementary school in her honor. Brookman passed away in 2002.
