Scope and Contents
Nevada Burial Records of Stewart Ranch date from 1905 to 1913 and consist of a ledger recording those buried at Stewart Ranch, an area that eventually became Las Vegas, Nevada. The entries in the ledger document the name of the deceased and where they died. Some entries have additional information explaining how the person died and their height and weight. In the front of the ledger is a sketch of the burial grounds. The plots are numbered and correspond with the numbers listed alongside the ledger entries. Stewart Ranch was used as a burial site before Woodlawn Cemetery was created in 1914.
