Abstract: The Fraternal Order of Eagles (F.O.E.) Las Vegas Chapter Records consist of scrapbooks, photo albums, and attendance record journals from the Women's Auxiliary #1213 and Retired Eagles Activities Club (REAC) #1213 from 1950 to 2001. The scrapbooks contain newspaper articles, photographs, memos, and state and national F.O.E. convention information pertaining to the Las Vegas chapter of the F.O.E. The REAC folder contains information about the founding of the REAC chapter in 1984, the constitution, bylaws, charter, and founding members. The REAC attendance record journals contain listings of members as well as meeting minutes.

Preferred Citation Note

Historical Note

The Fraternal Order of Eagles (F.O.E.) was founded in Seattle, Washington in 1898 to campaign for worker equality, particularly against age discrimination in the workplace, and social security. The national women's auxiliary branched off of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in 1927. The Las Vegas F.O.E. chapter #1213 was founded in 1905 and the Women's Auxiliary #1213 was founded March 24, 1934. The Las Vegas chapter #1213 also has a Retired Eagles Activities Club (REAC) founded in 1984 for retired F.O.E. members aged 55 and older. The Fraternal Order of Eagles is a non-profit organization and generally fundraises for health care related issues and children. The Las Vegas F.O.E. chapter organizes events for the local community, fundraises for local and national charities, and funds medical research for heart disease, Alzheimer's, and diabetes.
