Access Note

Collection is open for research, with the exception of materials that are restricted per donor agreement to protect privacy and confidentiality. Restrictions are noted at the file level of this inventory and will be open for research on the dates indicated. The donor placed restrictions on select files that will be opened January 1, 2027, and he agreed to open files originally marked "confidential" on January 1, 2047. Files that were identified as a legal work product are restricted for 75 years, until January 1, 2092, at which time they may be opened, pending further review. Arrangements must be made in advance to access digital files; please contact UNLV Special Collections and Archives for additional information.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyrights and other rights. See Reproductions and Use on the UNLV Special Collections and Archives website for more information about reproductions and permissions to publish.

Acquisition Note

Materials were donated in 2009 and 2016 by Eugene Martin Christiansen; accession numbers 2009-24 and 2016-036.

Processing Note

The collection was minimally described at the time of accessioning. In 2016 and 2017, as part of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) grant-funded project "America's Great Gamble," Lindsay Oden, Hana Gutierrez, and Lee Hanover processed, arranged, and described the materials. In 2019 and 2020, Sarah Jones minimally processed the born-digital materials and transferred them off optical discs and floppy disks. Numerous files failed to transfer due to corrupted files. No access copies were created at the time of processing.

In all cases, the names of federally recognized Native American nations used in the finding aid were taken from the "Indian Entities Recognized and Eligible To Receive Services From the United States Bureau of Indian Affairs" compiled by the Bureau of Indian Affairs in the 2016 edition of the Federal Register. However, when autonoms and native language names were available, they were placed before the Federal Register name. Outdated Federal Register names were also listed if the current Federal Register name had been edited or changed significantly by the government. For non-federally recognized nations, the name found on the primary document in the collection or the name found on the group's website was used. Canadian First Nations names were drawn from the "Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada" website.
