Historical Note

Wynn Las Vegas is a resort and casino located on the Las Vegas Strip in Paradise, Nevada. It was constructed on the land previously occupied by the Desert Inn, which Steve Wynn purchased in 2000. Between 2001 and 2004, Wynn decided to implode most of the Desert Inn towers to make room for the Wynn Las Vegas. The Wynn opened April 28, 2005.

Scope and Contents note

The collection is primarily comprised of a scrapbook (2008) of postcards and photographs tracing the history of the Las Vegas property upon which the Wynn Las Vegas resort is built. The scrapbook begins with several pages of historic postcards of the hotel originally built on the property, the Desert Inn, and continues with the establishment of the Wynn and the vision of its associated resort, the Encore. While the images primarily focus on the Desert Inn and the Wynn, there are also several pages of images of various other Las Vegas Strip properties accompanied by a brief timeline. The scrapbook contains approximately 76 images, dating from 1950 to 2008.

The scrapbook was created by Ryan Areu, an employee of the Wynn, who presented it as a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Wynn in 2008. Also included are four magazines (1940, 1947, 1955, and 1959) featuring Las Vegas, which Areu gave to the Wynns with the scrapbook.
