Historical Background

The Southern Nevada Coalition of Concerned Women, Inc. (SNCCW) was formed by Betty Brewer, Gloria Hewitt, and Beverly Stewart who were concerned with the many issues confronting African American women in Southern Nevada. On March 28, 1996 the group named themselves the Southern Nevada Coalition of Concerned Women and developed a mission statement. The group grew over the next several years and held many charity luncheons and participated in other charity events around the Las Vegas, Nevada area. On January 28, 2017 the SNCCW dissolved due to loss of community interest and participation.

Administrative Information

Access Note

Collection is open for research. Advance notice and arrangements are required for access to digital files; please contact UNLV Special Collections and Archives for more information.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyrights and other rights. See Reproductions and Use on the UNLV Special Collections and Archives website for more information about reproductions and permissions to publish.

Acquisition Note

Materials were donated in 2017 by Debra Mitchell; accession number 2017-126.

Processing Note

A rough inventory of the accession was created by Maggie Bukowski in 2017. To prepare the inventory, the described materials were reviewed to create a contents list, estimate dates, and identify material types. In 2018, as part of an archival backlog elimination project, Joyce Moore rehoused and arranged the materials, and revised the collection description to bring it into compliance with current professional standards.
