Scope and Contents Note

The UNLV University Libraries Collection of Clark County, Nevada Secured Assessment Publications (1992-2000) includes newspaper prints of Clark County, Nevada public records detailing land property information for the upcoming tax year. The Clark County secured assessment rolls were created by the Clark County Assessor's Office and published by the local newspaper of a designated area on or before the beginning of each year.

State statutes mandate the County Assessor must ascertain the value for all real estate and personal property in the county that are subjected to taxation. Previous and current records are available at the Clark County Assessor's Office or at satellite offices. Nevada secured assessment locations include Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, Mesquite, Henderson, Boulder City, and unincorporated Clark County areas. The newspaper organizations that published these records are the Las Vegas Review-Journal, Las Vegas Sun, Henderson Home News, Boulder City News, and Green Valley News. Listed assessors include Mark W. Schofield and Jean E. Dutton.
